Junior High Gridders End Race Today

Arlington's junior high school's complete their 1954 football season today, with the county championship still in doubt. Wakefield, unbeaten in four games but tied once, will play at Swanson, while Thomas Jefferson, winners of two games in four and tied twice, play at Stratford.

Both games are "seconds" as Swanson lost to Wakefield in the opening game for both schools by a 13-0 score, while Stratford fought to a scoreless tie against Thomas Jefferson in their initial encounter.

Swanson is winless in four games, having lost to Williamsburg, Thomas Jefferson and Stratford besides Wakefield, while Stratford shows victories over Williamsburg and Swanson, a loss to Wakefield and the tie with TJ.

Williamsburg, fifth team in the league, completed their season last week as they drew byes in the opening and closing dates. Their record for the year shows a victory over Swanson while losing to Wakefield, Stratford and Thomas Jefferson.
